

CHECK US OUT

UPCOMING ART ON PARK EXHIBIT!! BY RACHEL MCGEE

Kathryn Mussack's Art on Park exhibition, Minnesota Seasons: Oil on Canvas or Board, opens June 10! Mussack's works celebrate the four full and varied Minnesota seasons. In Mussack's words, "My collection consists of scenes from Minnesota, mostly from the Twin Cities area. The smaller pieces were done plein air, outdoors in one session."

Join us in the Library for art, refreshments, and an artist talk, during which Mussack will share insights into the collection. See the Library website for a full description of Mussack's collection and upcoming Art on Park exhibits.

Opening Reception: 4:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m.
Artist talk: 4:15 p.m.

Twin Cities Campus Library is currently accepting applications for 2011 Art on Park exhibits. Learn how to apply here.

NEW LIBRARY WEB SITE "SPRINGS" TO LIFE BY JANE LITTLEFIELD

After 12 months of practice runs, usability tests, and flowery librarian haikus, TC Library's new website bloomed on March 8th, 2010.

Awkward references to the nice springtime weather aside, TC Library's new website features improved navigation and new databases, library catalogs, services, and tutorials. Some highlights include:

- Article and book searching from the homepage
- Video and mp4 research tutorials
- TC Librarian recommendations for databases and web sites to help you get started
- TC Library blog, Facebook, Twitter, and Flickr accounts

Check it out @ www.smumn.edu/tclibrary. We hope you'll like what you see! Please share your feedback with us, too. Click here to leave your comments.

LAST CALL FOR JEANNIE E. ROBERTS' EXHIBIT BY RACHEL MCGEE

On February 10, over 45 people attended the first Art on Park opening. The exhibit featured Jeannie E. Roberts' collection, Rocks and Trees: Acrylics on Canvas. Roberts, an alumna of Saint Mary's Arts Administration program, spoke briefly regarding the collection. Roberts' rock imagery was inspired by the man-made stone landmark or cairn called an Inuksuk used by the Inuit and other peoples of the Arctic region of North America for communication and directional aids. Coincidentally, the Inuksuk landmarks were chosen as this year's Winter Olympics symbol.

Come see Jeannie E. Roberts' Rocks and Trees: Acrylics on Canvas before the exhibition ends on June 1, 2010.

Volume 3, Issue 3, May 2010

Spotlight: Kathryn Mussack

Artist Point, Winter
Art on Park, June 2010

PERFECT TEN—COMPUTERS! BY CARRIE KEILLOR

In mid-May, TC Library procured six new computers to meet growing demand for library lab space! The computers feature large monitors and are mighty fast.

Test drive the new computers or utilize existing technologies (i.e. scanner, printer, etc.) during library hours.

TEXT A LIBRARIAN BY JANE LITTLEFIELD

OMG—TC Library is guilty of texting during class! You can now text us and the librarian on the reference desk will text back a response to your question. We'll keep our answers 140 characters short, don't worry!

How to text us:

1. Address your text message to 246246
2. Start off the body of the message with send smutclibrary
3. Add your question/message

Send us your questions or comments!

E: tc-library@smumn.edu / P: (612) 728-5108 / Chat: www.smumn.edu/tclibrary

2500 Park Avenue, Minneapolis, MN 55404

Saint Mary's University of MN Twin Cities Library Approves This Message